About the course leader:

Peter Murphy was born 1959 in Leeds.

Educated at Jacob Kramer College of Art and the University of East London. He trained with iconographer Guillem Ramos Poqui in London. Peter uses traditional techniques from medieval religious painting, including egg tempera paint and gold leaf. is a member of The British Association of Iconographers for whom he runs workshops. He runs international courses, teaching these techniques.

Peter has been commissioned by a number of churches in the UK, notably Tewkesbury Abbey and Hereford Cathedral. He was one of a team on a BBC TV show which recreated a Botticelli painting in a week. He has recently undertaken three major commissions for Hereford Cathedral. He is chief tutor for the St Peter's Centre for Sacred Art, located in the medieval church of St Peter's in the heart of Canterbury and a visiting tutor in Byzantine Iconography, Early Italian painting and gilding techniques for the Edward James Foundation at West Dean College in Sussex.

COMMUNITY OF THE RESURRECTION

Byzantine Icon Painting Retreat

5 Day Residential in the peaceful surroundings of
The Community of the Resurrection
No previous Iconography experience required

Tuesday 14th-Saturday-18th April 2020

Peter Murphy

British Association of Iconographers

from £660.00(full board and materials)

About the Course

This five day retreat will be woven into the prayerful fabric of the Monastery's daily offices. Participants will learn the traditional and ancient techniques of the Byzantine Masters, including water gilding, with 24 carat gold leaf over clay and how to make and use pigments made fresh each day in the studio from natural mineral colours and eggs.

The aim of the workshop is to produce a small head and shoulders icon in the late Byzantine 'Proplasmos ' style. Peter will give guidance along the way and no previous experience of Iconography is required.

Daily Timetable

The course input will take place in between the rhythm of the day at the Community of the Resurrection with opportunity for reflection and an opportunity to join in the Benedictine life during your time here.
